A NOTE FROM 100% RAW POWERLIFTING FEDERATION PRESIDENT

Dear Lifters,
The American Challenge National Championships are over. We had 661 lifters from 25 states and 4 countries. This was an incredible event and we are still working on the final results. The results will not be final until July 31 when we make them final. We just need to make sure there were not any typos or mistakes. Highlights were New World Record Pedro Mejias and his 633.8lb Bench press and drug tested. Congratulations Pedro on a well done job. All lifters who placed in this event have qualified for the World Championships. Check out the results and see how did. The American Challenge "Where the real National Champions are crowned".

JULY 2012

VOLUME #2 ISSUE #7

Hello, My name is Murray Anderson. I am the 2011 Canadian National and World Sub-Master RAW Powerlifting Champion, in the Heavyweight class. I also hold the Canadian National RAW Powerlifting Squat and Powerlifting total records in my class.

Tribustol plays a large part in my success as an athlete. This highly anabolic formula increased my body's ability to recover. As all athletes know, recovery is the key to success. Due to increased recovery, I have been able to set some personal records in training. For example, I recently squatted 600lbs in training. Previously, my squat max was 585lbs. I am looking forward to showcasing my newly gained strength at the 2012 Eastern National Championship in Toronto, Ontario. I would like to thank Ramsey the folks at Tribustol for their support.

Train Hard and stay injury free!
